

Washington Chapter

“Emotional Intelligence”

What is “emotional intelligence?” It can be invaluable in your everyday business dealings, whether you’re dealing with obstinate employees, upset customers, interviewing job applicants. It can also be invaluable in your personal relationships with friends and family.

Who should attend?

You, your employees, your spouse, and your friends... everyone can benefit from this presentation. Many members that attended Gary’s presentation two years ago reported a positive life-changing way of understanding ALL of their relationships.

When: Monday March 15, 2010

5:30 PM – Socializing and dinner

Presentation to follow

Where: Jon Don

4111 Airport Way South

Seattle, WA 98108

Cost: $20.00 Member - $30.00 non-member - at the door

Call the CCINW office at 1.877.MY-CCINW with credit card info

About the speaker:

Gary Benton MC is a frequent local and national seminar speaker and trainer who addresses a number of different topics to a broad range of groups. He presents seminars such as: Managing Change in the Workplace, Improving Communication, Living With Teens, Developing a Vision and Mission, Dealing With Difficult and Angry Clients, Domestic Violence Treatment, Stress Reduction and Grief and others.

All CCINW-WW chapter meetings earn ½ IICRC continuing education credit