

CCINW + RIA = a better organization for you

CCINW adds partnership, increases the value of membership

CCINW members will now receive full membership in the CCINW plus an affiliate membership in the RIA at no additional cost!

As an RIA affiliate, the CCINW is able to provide its members with discounts to RIA sponsored programs and events; access to RIA's online technical library at no charge; access to RIA's technical advisors at substantially discounted rates; complimentary subscriptions to RIA's monthly e-newsletter, NewsBreak, and to the e-version of the Association's monthly, award-winning magazine, Cleaning & Restoration®.

In addition, members will get discounts on any RIA products and special pricing if they wish to join RIA as a full member. CCINW and RIA will work together on projects that will bring top-flight seminars to the CCINW region and at special rates for members.

What is the RIA?

The Restoration Industry Association is the oldest and most trusted organization in the cleaning and restoration industry. Their members are the who's who of the industry, and their leading edge information and certifications are without equal.

The RIA is an organization that values integrity, honesty and believes in doing the right things the right way. They're just like us.

$500 for you!

The CCINW will also pass along full membership to the WFCA at our cost. Members that choose this option will be eligible for $500 in grant money to defray the cost of attending any industry educational event, from seminars to Connections.

Possibly the best membership value in the cleaning and restoration industry!
